One of the greatest challenges for organizations operating on a global scale is the ability to seamlessly navigate a business environment that is constantly changing. With operations on every major continent and in more than 40 countries, Constellis delivers agile, scalable and cost-effective mission support solutions that easily integrate into our clients’ day-to-day operations. Our reach-back capability comprises global training and infrastructure; transportation; supply chain management; intelligence; and special operations mission support and personnel.

We provide continuous monitoring of programs, personnel and equipment from our Dubai-based Global Operations and Command Center (GOCC). With regional and local vendor networks across our areas of operations, we support local economies, reduce costs and provide expedited delivery of personnel, material, equipment and supplies to our clients around the world.
